AT THE THEATER

Tonight's Attraction.
"Texas," which appears at the Duncan Opera house tonight, is a delightful picture of the west, filled with dramatic situations interspersed with comedy and romance. The plot is the recital of the love of Texas West, a daughter of a breezy ranch owner, for Jack Dallam, cowboy and Texas ranger, and of the best efforts of the English ranch owner, Lord Angus Trevor, to win the girl for himself. The pleasing manner in which the play is presented, as a picture of the brave, kind, big-hearted men and women of the ranch as contrasted with the product of advanced civilization, "Texas" is a masterpiece. The play has been seen in all the large cities of the east during the past five years, where it had phenomenal success and received unstinted praise wherever presented.

A Musical Comedy.
That much heralded musical comedy, "Fifty Miles From Boston," the latest effort of that clever author-actor-playwright, Geo. M. Cohan, will be presented at the Duncan opera house next Monday night, under the direction of Cohan and Harris. Mr. Cohan is said to have furnished a very diverting production in this New England story, with a consistent plot, plenty of dramatic situations, two very pretty love stories and a number of catchy Cohan songs, which are worked into the play with a master hand.

The scenes of the play are laid in quiet Brookfield, about fifty miles from Boston, and the types are all familiar ones, from the demure little postmistress and her sullen brother, to the college lad, the high school girls and boys, and the self-important man of affairs Tim Harrigan, who "has influence with the Town Council."

The character of "Harrigan" is said to bid fair to be as distinctive a one as David Harum or the Uncle Josh of "The Old Homestead." It will be played by Daniel Williams whose singing of the famous "Harrigan" song is said to be one of the best things he has done in years.

The village gossip and the little postmistress are cleverly portrayed by excellent actresses and are declared true to the life. Among the songs which Mr. Cohan has given "Fifty Miles From Boston" are "Harrigan," "Jack and Jill," "Waltz With Me," "My Small Town Gal," "Ain't It Awful," and "Boys Who Fight the Flames." The company numbers over Fifty and the lavish production is the same which was seen in New York, Chicago and Boston, where the piece enjoyed long and brilliant engagements.

"The Girl Question."
One of the banner attractions at the Duncan opera house this season will be H. H. Frazee's production of "The Girl Question," a musical play by Adams, Hough & Howard, authors of "The Time, The Place and The Girl" and is along the same lines of human interest embellished by dashing songs and dances and pretty chorus girls. There is side-splitting fun resulting from witty dialogue and humorous situations, as well as absorbing plot. The chorus contains 50 Blue Ribbon show girls and the $1,000 beauty "broilers." The production was staged by Mr. George Marion which is a guarantee of success.

The time table of the musical numbers of "The Girl Question," the successor to "The Time The Place and The Girl," which comes to the Duncan opera house Wednesday evening, March 17, is as follows:
Opening chorus, 8:15, "Be Sweet to Me, Kid."
8:25—"Waltz With Me Till I'm Dreamy."
8:35—"There's No Place Like Home."
9:07—"The Second Act, 'The Old Buck and Wing.'"
"I'd Like to Hear You Call Me Honey."
9:35—"When Eyes Like Yours Look

Into Eyes Like Mine."
9:50—"The Imitation Craze."—Anna Held Girls, Geo. Cohan Boys.
Act Three—"I Hate to Work on Monday," 10:20.

10:30—"Do Something."
10:37—"The Phantom Chimes."
The La Salle theater, Chicago, where such phenomenal runs have been made with the peculiar brand of musical plays written by Adams, Hough and Howard, has just closed a long and exceedingly profitable engagement of "The Girl Question." This play is unpretentious in its story, though it has more of a plot than the average musical comedy. Its characters are men and women of every-day life whose closeness to nature make it of intense human interest, and it is full of jingling tunes, pretty dances and dashing chorus girls which have made its predecessors such phenomenal money makers not only in Chicago but wherever they have appeared.

A Religious Author's Statement
Rev. Joseph H. Fesperman, Salisbury, N. C., who is the author of several books, writes: "For several years I was afflicted with kidney trouble and last winter I was suddenly stricken with a severe pain in my kidneys and was confined to bed eight days unable to get up without assistance. My urine contained a thick white sediment and I passed same frequently day and night. I commenced taking Foley's Kidney Remedy, and the pain gradually abated and finally ceased and my urine became normal. I cheerfully recommend Foley's Kidney Remedy." Red Cross Drug Co. and O. G. Schaefer.

You can, at least, do this much to help; don't encourage people in their fool notions.

Good Cough Medicine for Children and Grown Folks, Too.

"We could hardly do without Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," says Mrs. Flora Despain of Floyd, Ky. "I found it to be so good for the croup and have used it for years. I can heartily recommend it for coughs, colds and croup in children and grown folks, too." The above shows the implicit confidence that many mothers place in Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, a confidence based on many years' experience in the use of it. No one need hesitate to use this remedy for it contains no chloroform, opium or other narcotics and may be given to a child as confidently as to an adult. For sale by all dealers.

What has become of the old-fashioned harshe that wore real ostrich plumes?

Forced Into Exile
Wm. Upchurch of Glenn Oak, Okla., was an exile from home, Mountain air, he thought, would cure a frightful lung-racking cough that had defied all remedies for two years. After six months he returned, death dogging his steps. "Then I began to use Dr. King's New Discovery," he writes, "and after taking six bottles I am as well as ever." It saves thousands yearly from desperate lung diseases. Infalible for coughs and colds, it dispels hoarseness and sore throat. Cures grip, bronchitis, hemorrhages, asthma, croup, whooping cough. 50c and $1.00, trial bottle free, guaranteed by all druggists.
